Introduction

The Relocation Chart

A relocation chart is simply an ordinary natal horoscope moved to a different location. It's a chart cast for the same cosmic instant of birth, but looked at from another location, as if the birth happened there. The planets' sign positions all remain the same, but they will appear in different houses at different locations, thus altering their strengths and areas of influence. So, if you were born in New York, for instance, and then moved to Paris, your relocation chart would have any first house planets shifted about 90 degrees clockwise into the tenth house; tenth house planets would be shifted into the seventh house, and so on, thus giving your natal chart a whole new look for your Parisian adventures. In fact, if it turns out to be a significant improvement, you might even want to move there. Or, perhaps you might just want to visit when you are doing the kind of things that your Paris relocation chart favors -- work, play, health, creativity -- depending on your planets' relocated house positions.

The Relocation Map

Although any one relocation chart opens up new possibilities for you when you travel, if you put a lot of them together and trace them on a map you get a set of marked-out roads of opportunity that stretch around the world, each of which will add strength and emphasis to specific parts of your personality and potential. There is a geographical ribbon running many thousands of miles around the globe, every mile of which gives you Mars rising, adding to your energy and individual power whenever you are on it. Another gives you the Sun rising, another, the Moon, and so on. Around the other side of the earth are similar routes on which your planets are always exactly setting, on the cusp of the seventh house. Similarly, there are north-south pathways each 12,000 miles long where individual planets are on your Midheaven or IC if you go to them. Together, they make up an often-intersecting set of personal highways, a grid of 40 planetary lines that mark out your chart's strongest places for relocation, where one or more natal planets are on the angles.

And if that's not enough potential roads to travel on, there are a total of 180 global lines that depict where your 45 major planetary midpoints are on the angles, adding a subtle substructure to your planetary potential. Altogether, they depict your own personal World Wide Web of highways and byways that add special strengths to your chart and promise new heightened adventure and return for simply taking a trip. You'll find that there's hardly a place on the planet you can go without discovering a new slant on life, a new take on what you already have working inside you.

Windows Of Opportunity

Finally, as your personal progressions and transits move along and affect your natal chart, these same changes will be touching your relocation chart as well, but often quite differently. This will mean that certain parts of the world open up as unique windows of opportunity for a limited, but golden time. A look at these will tell you not only where to travel, but when is the optimum time to be there as well. Find out the best of where and when, and then book your ticket, with the stars on your side.

The Armchair Traveler

You don't have to actually show up at a strong relocation place to have it affect you. You may well find that areas where you have locality planets, midpoints, transits, or progressions on the angles have a way of waltzing into your life unannounced, or that you'll find yourself dealing with people who live there in a way that is described by your chart in that locality. In the era of electronic world travel, you may not need to go out of your door to find your different relocation charts working for you.

Angles in Signs

Ascendant in Scorpio

You've got everything to gain here from hiding something -- or at least pretending to. Playing an intense and somewhat mysterious role comes naturally and will get you the most attention with the least risk. You're at your best when smoldering, with just enough smoke to show there's fire down below.

Midheaven in Leo

A reputation for warmth and good times will precede you here, so all you have to do is live up to it. Don't pass up a party, and showing off your talents of the heart will get you everything. You can get away with things you never could at home, simply by wearing a smile and inviting others to do the same.

Planets on Angles

Any planet on one of the angles (Ascendant, MC, Descendant, IC) of your relocation chart will be greatly strengthened when you are at the place of relocation, very much like if it were on the angles of your natal chart. If the Sun is on an angle, you'll have more confidence; if Mars is there you'll have more energy, and so on. Moreover, you don't have to actually go there to get the effect. Having a planet on a relocated angle will accentuate that place for you even if you are only doing business with people there over the phone. You have an accentuated quality to people in such places that you may not have elsewhere.

Natal Mercury On MC (Strong)

If you've got a really good idea and you want to spread it around, this is one place to go, however strange as that might seem at first. For whatever reason, you'll find that your thinking is energized and that you'll find others listening to what you say more than in other places. If you're in any sort of communications, writing, science, or technology, this might be a great place to make your headquarters, even if you don't want to live here. If you do choose this option, you'll be expected to be as good as your word, as your personal radio beacon will broadcast far and wide and you'll be held accountable for what you say. On the other hand, you'll probably get a lot more feedback and resulting inspiration on what you cook up here -- ideal for brainstorming and getting instant results on ideas. On the more temporary side, a visit here may find you figuring out knotty problems previously neglected because you're more likely to talk about them and find an audience. Thus, when you're having trouble getting your brain in gear, this is the place to work things out, because you'll have help. But, of course, you'll be forced to give credit for that as well.

Mercury in Tenth House

Organizing professional affairs and getting them down on paper may be especially easy here -- and you'll find that what you have to say gets spread around a lot more quickly than in most places. For that reason, though, watch what you say and say it right the first time -- the cameras are rolling, even when you don't think so.

Natal Neptune Sxt MC (Strong)

You can be tagged as a dream-maker, a wish-fulfiller here, and whether you become another Walt Disney may be all about how you play the hand that's given you on arrival. What people hear about you may not be real, but it's not bad, either, and pretty easy to step in and fill the role in a comfortable and profitable way.

Neptune in Eighth House

All that glitters here is not gold, and the rainbow moves when you try to race to its end. There is a lot of mystery that retains its value by remaining so, and that should be enough for you. If you need to rely on it, bring it with you when you come, don't expect it to underwrite your efforts when you get here.

Natal Moon/Mars On AS (Strong)

You may find your strongest feelings come to the fore here, and your reactions will be strong, energizing. It's an invigorating environment, but you can get carried away easily and put out more than you mean to or perhaps should, so watch what you say. Enjoy the rush, but don't rush past the level of enjoyment.

Natal Sun/Mars On MC (Strong)

An energizing place for sure -- you'll likely get known here for putting out to the max and running on high octane. Remember, however, that you may get a one-sided rep that requires you to be on the go 24/7 when you really need a rest. Clear a little quiet space for yourself now and then when you can put out the "Do Not Disturb" sign on the doorknob.

Natal Moon Ssq IC (Strong)

It might be wise to put your opinions through the editing process before you let fly with your off-the-cuff feelings here, as off-the-hip shots could get you into a quagmire of explanations and misinterpretations. That doesn't mean clam up all the time, just know that you may have to do some spin control when you don't.

Moon in Second House

Your feelings about the landscape and what's on it can run strong here, and you might well be tempted to buy a sizeable scoop. You'll love it more if you can own it and get physical, so don't hesitate to get your hands dirty in this garden. You'll find you've got a green thumb waiting to happen here.

Natal Venus Tri AS (Strong)

You can make it obvious what you want here without actually being obvious about it. Just act naturally, and you'll be putting out just the right message of both desire and accommodation that will set things flowing nicely. It's easy to look good without having to overdress the part, casual is classic, and you're it.

Venus in Eighth House

Hints of lost love or buried desire lurk in the landscape here, and you may have to do some rooting around to find just what and where they are. You can (and must) engage the resources of others to help you get what you want, but only you can be sure it's right for you once you've found it. Then, don't lose it.

Natal Neptune Ssq AS (Medium)

Mistaken identity can be a recurring problem here -- whether it's someone else mistaking you for another or you finding it difficult to see yourself as others see you. In the process, you may have to do a little song and dance to clarify things. The opportunity to deceive is great, but the long-term chances of getting away with it aren't.

Natal Jupiter/Uranus On AS (Medium)

Opportunity doesn't just knock here, it breaks down the door, so the trick is to avoid getting run over by it. Situations explode quickly and lightning developments require instant decisions and a seatbelt ride. Discovery abounds, and you can make a lot of quick sales if you're ready to spin on a dime.

Natal Venus Ssq MC (Medium)

If they offer you something you don't want here, it's not meant to offend. They just thought they'd heard you liked it. Getting your desires and tastes spread abroad here can take some extra footwork, so don't be afraid to speak up until things are as you want them to be. You may have to repeat yourself.

Natal Jupiter/Pluto On MC (Medium)

If you encounter resistance to your newest-laid plans here, success through confrontation may have appeal, but it will become a label on you, so proceed with caution. When you have something positive to present, let it be backed by its own worth and your personal faith and conviction. A spoonful of sugar makes the medicine go down.

Natal Jupiter/Neptune On MC (Medium)

You'll do well in the arts here, or in any area of creative endeavor that requires promoting a positive and hopeful outlook. You've got a good message to transmit, albeit somewhat non-specific, and all you need is a good rallying cry for folks to gather around. Feel out their needs, address their promises as if they were your own (because they are).

Natal Sun Ssx MC (Medium)

You can find it easy here to get a reputation for being the person you really are, without having to spend time painting the picture for everybody. What they hear about you will be on the mark and you can work from there. It's supportive for career moves, because you can turn your attention to what's important right off the bat.

Sun in Ninth House

This is an environment in which you can pretty much cut loose and stake out some new territory for yourself. Your original approach is welcome, so be sure to trade on it, and you'll find yourself opening up and learning a lot as you trade views with new contacts. It's a bigger world than you ever might have thought.

Natal Moon Tri DS (Medium)

Feelings find outlet more effortlessly here -- not necessarily by a direct route, but sometimes by an open door that invites you to walk through. You're more naturally at ease with the way you relate to the environment, so the rest flows along without having to think about it or analyze your emotions.

Natal Jupiter Tri IC (Mild)

It's easy for people here to think of you as the latest and greatest, as that will be what they naturally hear first. Your job is not to get in the way of that rumor and do all you can to confirm it. Make the most of free good press and then add a little bit to keep the ball rolling and you're set.

Jupiter in Twelfth House

Pushing the envelope too far or raising expectations too quickly can get you into difficulty here, so be cautious about great new opportunities you're either buying or promoting. They might be more trouble than they're worth. The biggest deals are best done in private, behind the scenes, where they can be kept under close scrutiny by only the relevant people.

Natal Mars Sxt AS (Mild)

You should find your stamina level increasing here -- or, at least you find it easier to get the job done without having to waste extra energy. Your first stroke is usually the right one, so you save energy by not having to repeat efforts in order create accomplishment. Easy and invigorating.

Mars in Tenth House

You can push your career and reputation to the limits of the culture here, more than you might think, considering. Energy spent in waving your flag will result in frequent sightings and enough engagements to be worth your while. Just remember that everyone can see it, so be evenhanded when you give your response.

Paran Latitude Lines

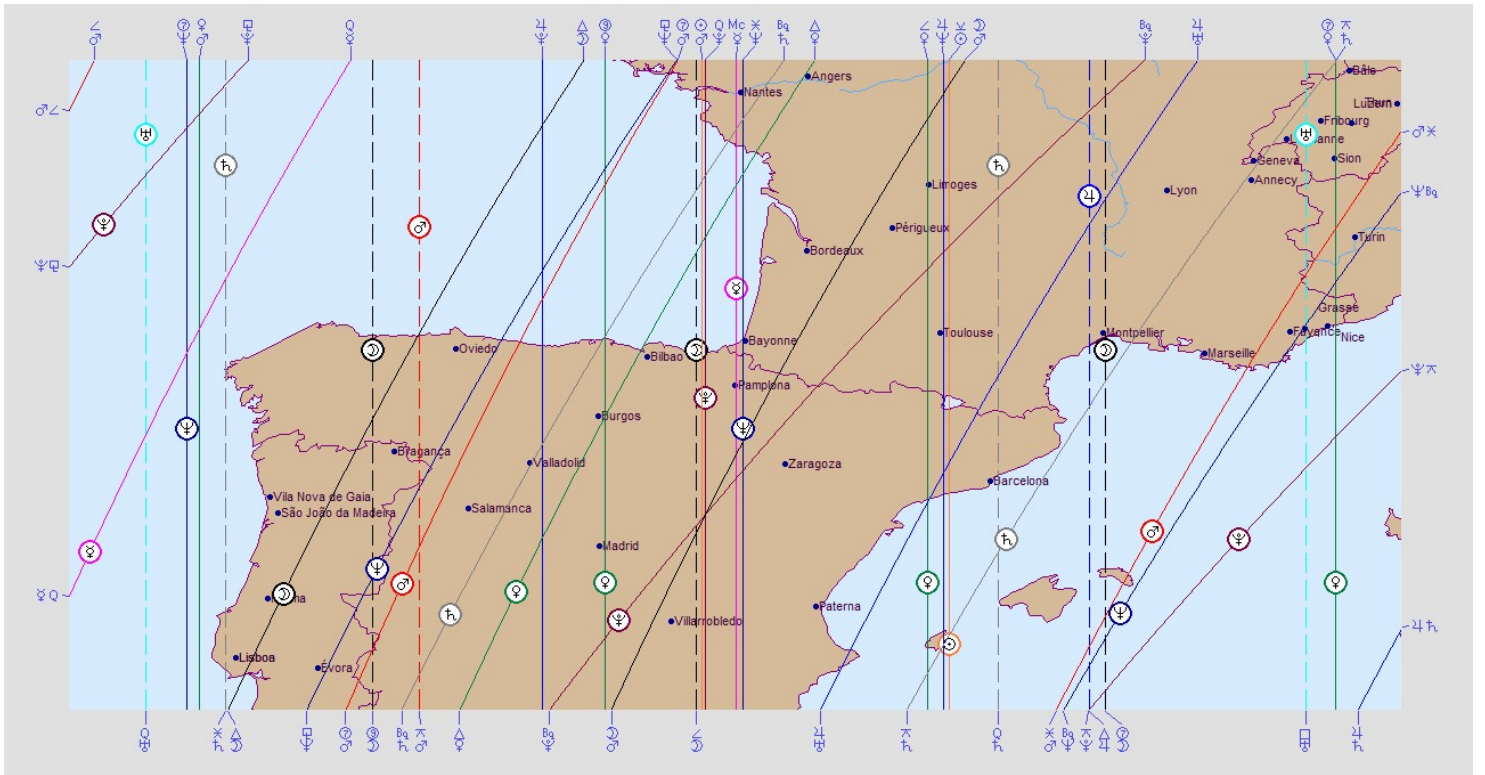

Venus-Mars Latitude Line at 42N20'09"

This could certainly be your pleasure dome if you are the least inclined to make it so. That sexy sparkle, personal magnetism, charm, and charisma that you see on the silver screen becomes yours to call upon when you walk out the door. Desire and opportunity meet for you here, and all you have to do is choose the stage and play the part. It's not a free ride, of course, and certainly not passive. It requires that you throw yourself into living here and embrace every chance to live life to the max that comes your way, even when it's troublesome. You want to be a star, you got to put up with the paparazzi. If that sounds too exhausting, take a pass on it. If not, head this way and let the party begin.

Neptune-Pluto Latitude Line at 42N28'58"

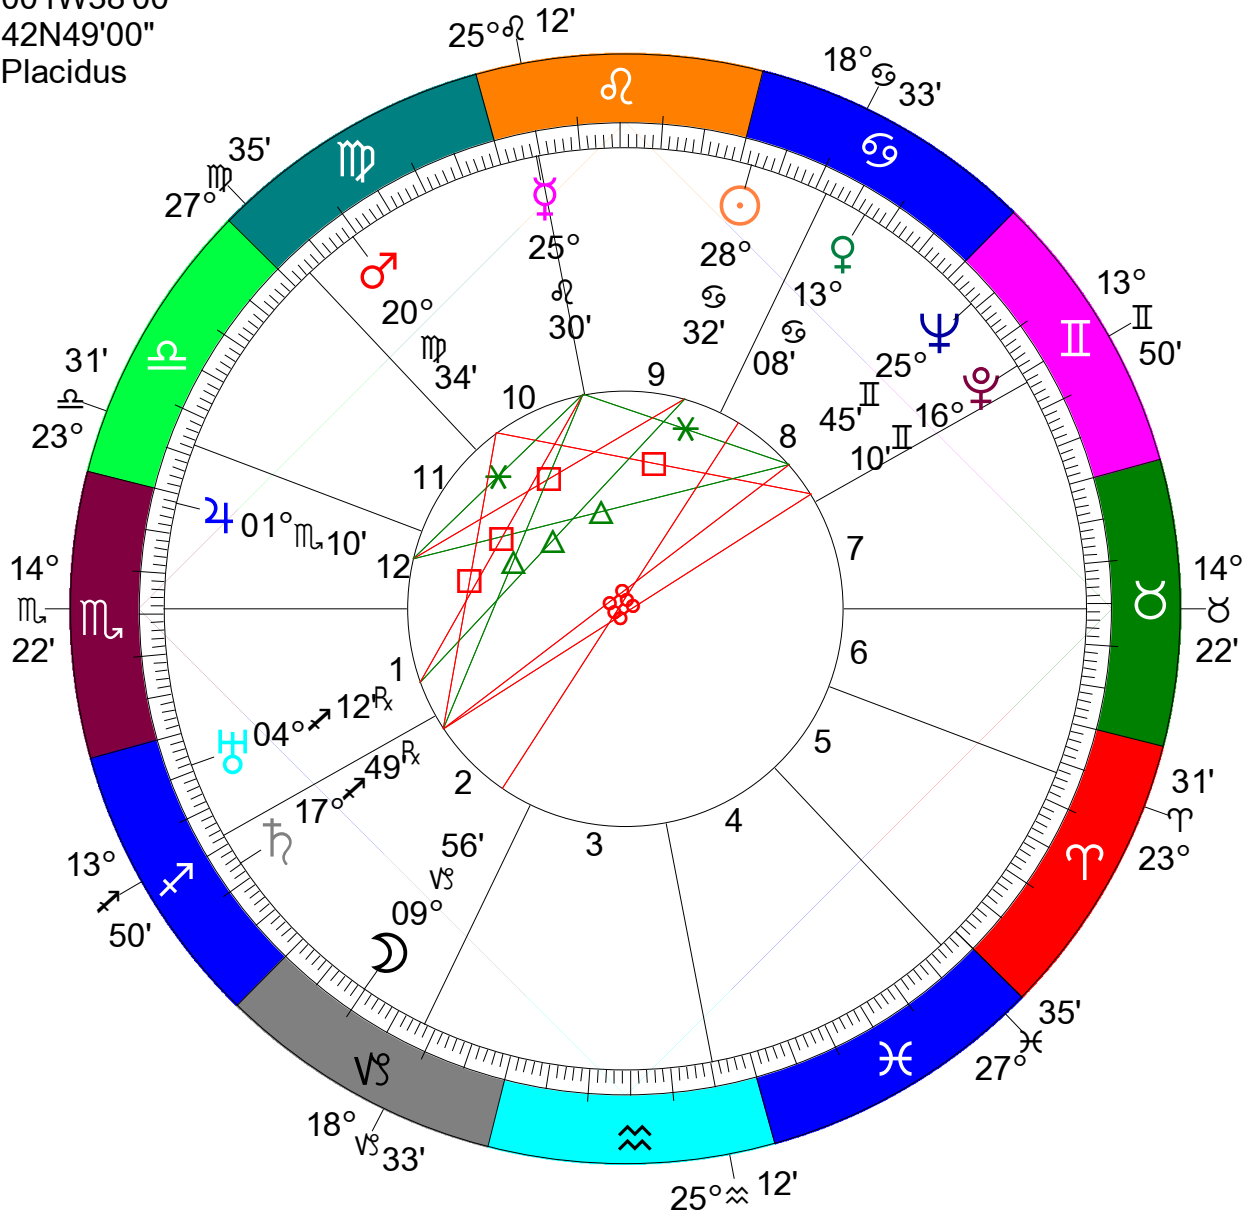

There is a sweep of history here, of hopes and fears raised, expectations and realizations that have come and gone, that is like an endless procession of ghosts available to you to commune with. It makes you realize you're part of a much bigger picture that you probably haven't a clue about, but you've got a fascinating window on nevertheless. It is an opening beyond the merely mortal to that which transcends the scale on which we live. You'll only notice it here, from day to day, if you look for it, but it's there for a glimpse of evolution, past and future. Imagine what an amoeba thinks of the view from Everest, that's a start.
